VIII

REFORM OF THE FIELD SERVICE

1. Notes the proposal of the Secretary-General to provide for peacekeeping staffing on an on-going basis, enhance professionalism, and to enhance the ability of the UN to respond quickly to peacekeeping needs by designating a cadre of continuing civilian positions from within existing capacity, and requests him to submit proposals for the operation of the proposed cadre to the GA at its second resumed sixty-first session, taking into account the views and observations of the ACABQ in paragraphs 70 to 77 of its report². adopted

IX

BUILDING LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT CAPACITY

1. Encourages a more rigorous and systematic approach to selection at the Under-Secretary-General, Assistant Secretary-General and Director levels, in order to incorporate skilful leadership and management with due regard to geographical representation and gender balance in the selection of candidates for these positions; adopted
2. Requests the Secretary-General to report at its sixty-third session on the findings and outcomes of this rigorous and systematic approach, as well as on concrete measures to recruit and appoint nationals from un- and under-represented states, in particular developing countries, at senior levels including Under-Secretary-General and Assistant Secretary-General; adopted
3. Emphasizes that training should not only improve managerial skills of senior officers but should also serve to update and complement their substantive knowledge on various United Nations core mandates. adopted

MEASURES TO IMPROVE EQUITABLE GEOGRAPHIC DISTRIBUTION

1. Notes the progress made since 1994 in reducing the number of countries that are unrepresented and underrepresented; adopted
2. Also notes that the number of unrepresented and underrepresented Member States has increased since 2002; adopted
3. Welcomes the continuing efforts of the Secretary-General to improve the situation of unrepresented and underrepresented Member States and of those in danger of becoming underrepresented under the system of desirable ranges; adopted
4. Notes with concern that the total number of staff from underrepresented Member States and their proportion to the total number of staff in posts subject to geographical distribution decreased between 2002 and 2006, as reflected in the Secretary-General's report³; adopted
5. Welcomes the analysis of the level of underrepresentation in the report of Secretary-General on the composition of the Secretariat; adopted
6. Regrets the current insufficient accountability of heads of departments in achieving equitable geographical distribution in the Secretariat; adopted
7. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his ongoing efforts to attain equitable geographic distribution in the Secretariat and to ensure as wide geographical distribution of staff as possible in all departments and offices of the Secretariat; adopted

8. Requests the Secretary-General to place information on the Human Resources Action Plans on the United Nations website and to report thereon in the context of the Management Performance Board report; adopted
9. Recalls paragraph 38, section II of its resolution 57/305, paragraph 5, section IV of its resolution 59/226 and takes note of the table 5 in the Secretary-General's report³ and expresses its concern at the decline of the number of nationals from developing countries at the senior and policy-making levels, as well as the imbalance in different departments of the Secretariat; adopted
10. Notes that the system of geographic ranges was designed to apply to countries rather than regions or groups; adopted
11. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure through the Management Performance Board, the monitoring of the implementation of human resources action plans, including the principle of equitable geographical distribution in the Secretariat at all levels as set out in relevant General Assembly resolutions, and verifying the effective application of measures of transparency and accountability including in the selection, recruitment and placement processes. adopted
12. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts to increase recruitment from unrepresented and underrepresented Member States and to undertake outreach efforts designed to avoid new countries from falling under these categories; and urges the Secretary-General, to the extent possible, to take the necessary steps to reduce the number of under- or unrepresented Member States in the composition of the Secretariat by 20% and 30%, by the years 2008 and 2010 respectively, compared to the year 2006; and further requests the Secretary-General to report thereon regularly from the sixty-third session, as appropriate; adopted
